'RAIL TOURISM - EXPERIENCE MALAYSIA HOMESTAY BY RAIL' EXPERIENCE OF KELANTAN HOMESTAY

4 DAYS / 2 NIGHTS HOMESTAY KAMPUNG BATU PAPAN GUA MUSANG, KELANTAN.

Sit by the river edge and listen to the soothing sounds of the Galas River as it flows steadily beside the village. Catch the sunrise over the horizon as villagers' wake up to another day full of activity.

The place is serene, surrounded by peculiar caves, the Honey Cave (Gua Madu) of which, only the local's know the entrance and layabout of this place.

According to local folklore, a swarm of bees built their nest on the cave ceiling, and the nest has grown over the years. It is this peculiar spot that has given the cave its unusual name, Honey Cave.

Another popular activity here, is fishing by the lake. Village boys' often spend time here during the school holidays to catch the odd prawn or two.

Visitors' can also watch up close the making of kerepek (crackers), a cottage industry slowly helping the village folk increase their economic livelihood.

One can't help but smile at the warmth hospitality of the villagers, as they introduce you to their local culture. Try learning a Kelantanese dialect or two, and watch their faces smile wide as they exchange greetings with you.

You'll be surprised by how much you discover about Kelantan and its gentle people, through this homestay experience!
